Simeon Centre vacancy - Can you help?

We require a responsible and trustworthy person to join our organisation's team of trustees. Meetings are held bi-monthly during the evening. As Treasurer you will offer strategic financial guidance to the trustees and manager of the service. You will not be required to carry out any day-to-day book-keeping or handle cash but will need regular/weekly access to the internet. This position would suit someone with an existing track record in finance/accountancy.

The Simeon Centre, based in Bolton, is a free counselling service available to anyone aged 16 years upwards; dealing with any issue that is important to you.

For more information contact Gary Jones, Manager on 01204 387363.

Tongues of Fire

A Pentecostal Musical by Rev Darren
Garfield. Will be performed at

Kearsley Mount Sunday 17th May at 6.15pm

Trinity Church. 5th July at 6.15 pm

Free admission but any donations received will be in aid of Nepal

Once again Precious Gems run our Circle Dancing session are asking for our support , please take a couple of minutes to register and vote for their new mens project, you can cast 10 votes for various charities and they hope you will give some to their project. If you use facebook there is an easy option to register using facebook.

"This project will be able to create more friendships and network for men who are more likely to be isolated socially especially when they are aged 50 and above"

Thanks for your ongoing support.

Further information on the poster in the Coffee lounge

Could you please save any bottle corks that you may have, for one of our crafts at the Holiday Club this year. Please ask around to friends as we need quite a few, if you do have any and I am not available please leave them on the bookcase near our Welcome Table. Many Thanks Ann

As a circuit we have been given a grant to allow people who are carers for a family member , friend or neighbours to have a little 'time out' by enjoying 4 free meals at our Wharton & Cleggs lane Community café as well as 4 free tea and toast at our coffee mornings (useable at Kearsley mount , Christ Church and Trinity) if you or someone you know is a carer and would like a carers 'time out' voucher pack, please contact me ASAP. If you see new faces at our coffee mornings , make them welcome they could be a carer taking a well-earned 'time out'
